FUND A NEED: MOVE-IN

Move-In Scholarships

So a man doesn't need $1,000 to walk through the door

Level Up has a $1,000 move-in fee on the books. It has to be there, because some agencies pay it on a man's behalf. But most men coming home from prison don't have $1,000, so Level Up almost always waives it. And the fee never came close to the real cost: repairs after damage, trash left behind, and packing and storing a man's things when he has to leave. A scholarship covers his move-in and keeps the house ready for the next man.

WHAT IT COSTS

One move-in scholarship Covers the $1,000 fee for one man coming home	$1,000
Per man	$1,000

Level Up's move-in fee, confirmed by Katrina Romatowski, September 2026.

WAYS TO SPONSOR

$10,000
Move-ins for ten men.

$5,000
Move-ins for five men.

$1,000
One man's move-in, covered in full.

$250
A quarter of one man's move-in.

21
men lived the program, January to June 2026

26
men supported in six months, counting help before entry

10
beds for men coming home from prison and jail

$869
to get one man in the door and connected

Want to cover a man's move-in? Teri will tell you when he arrives.

Teri Devlin, Executive Director
teri@leveluphome.org · 425-232-5098
Marysville, Snohomish County, WA · leveluphome.org

Level Up Home is operated by Level Up Seattle, a Washington nonprofit and 501(c)(3), EIN 83-2283933. Gifts are tax-deductible as allowed by law.